

Cooking Up Goodness for the Kidneys

Ang Wei Ming was crowned the winner of the recent National Kidney Foundation of Malaysia (NKF) and Berjaya University College of Hospitality (BERJAYA UCH) Healthy Cook-off competition. The competition was held to promote the theme of World Kidney Day 2017, 'Kidney Disease and Obesity'. To that end, kidney-friendly recipes from the top five winners will be included in NKF's very first recipe book by BERJAYA UCH Year 2 students, with Ang getting the spotlight on the cover.

Stephanie Wee (Donor Relations and Events Executive, NKF), Chef Roizz Razalli (Head of Pastry, Faculty of Culinary Arts, BERJAYA UCH), Kher Pui Ling (Dietician, NKF), Chef Jochen Kern (Global Master Chef and Director, Faculty of Culinary Arts, BERJAYA UCH), Chef Vincent Pang (Chef Lecturer, Faculty of Culinary Arts, BERJAYA UCH) and Suki Low (Founder and Dietician of Move2Cook) with Year 2 Berjaya UCH students
