

Sliding down a highway

A water slide party right smack in the middle of a highway is something to put on one's social calendar. The two-day event featuring a giant water slide the size of three football fields running down a highway exit, only had one purpose – for everyone to have fun. Proceeds from the event amounting to RM25,000 was donated to the National Kidney Foundation, the event's sole beneficiary.