

Gift of health

A HUNDRED physically disabled individuals underwent blood screening recently to test for over 60 diseases and symptoms. This is crucial for the prevention of easily avoidable diseases and in extreme cases, double disabilities.

The screening exercise was made possible with the financial aid from Brand's annual Gift Of Love charity campaign, where part of the proceeds from the sale of its Chinese New Year hampers and gift sets were channelled to charity.

For registration, visit www.nkf.org.my or follow NKF 'nkfmy' on Twitter, Facebook or Instagram.