Toyota Classics celebrates silver jubilee

TOYOTA Classics recently celebrated its 25th anniversary by hosting a dazzling fundraising and an orchestral performance at the Dewan Filharmonik Petronas, Kuala Lumpur.

“With this 25th anniversary, we are especially humbled at how the Toyota Classics programme has positively transformed thousands of lives over the years,” said UMW Toyota Motor president Datuk Ismet Suki.

Over the years, the Toyota Classics has raised more than RM7mil to benefit close to 60 charitable organisations.

This year, the Toyota Classics featured the Covent Garden Soloists Orchestra from London under the baton of world-renowned Spanish conductor Miguel Angel Navarro.

Bulgarian violin prodigy Vasko Vassilev was electrifying as featured violin soloist art while Pamela Nicholson held the audience’s attention with her piano performances.

The evening’s rapt audience included the Sultan Sharafuddin Idris Shah of Selangor, Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad, Tun Dr Siti Hasmah and Japanese Ambassador to Malaysia Dr Makio Miyagawa.

Proceeds from this year’s ticket sales and corporate donations amounted to RM425,000 which were channelled to the Lung Foundation of Malaysia, the National Kidney Foundation of Malaysia, Pertubuhan Kebajikan dan Perlindungan Nur Qaseh Malaysia and Yayasan Islam Darul.
