

Process Systems Engineering Centre is organising a seminar on Reactor Systems Design, Operation And Control from April 1-2 at Universiti Teknologi Malaysia (UTM) Kuala Lumpur. The workshop will be taught by Dr Mohd. Kamaruddin Abd. Hamid, a senior lecturer at the Faculty of Chemical Engineering, UTM. For details, contact Nurul Huda Zamzuri (07-553-6243/6244/6246) or email nurulhuda@cheme.utm.my

The Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho: MEXT) Scholarships 2014 (Undergraduate and Postgraduate) is open for application. During the term of scholarships, monthly allowances of 117,000 yen (RM3,900) will be given to each undergraduate grantee, and 143,000 yen to each postgraduate grantee. The amounts are subject to change.

For details, forms and deadlines, visit www.my.emb-japan.go.jp or call 03-2177-2600 (ext 146 for undergraduate enquiries and ext 157, postgraduate).

The University of Canterbury College of Engineering in New Zealand is offering scholarships to recognise the ongoing relationship between the college and Malaysia. These scholarships are only for students applying for admission to the university through the Selset New Zealand agency in Malaysia. Applications have been extended to March 31. For details and other aid such as Malaysian Alumni City and Regional Scholarships, visit canterbury.ac.nz/scholarships

Tunku Abdul Rahman College (TAR College) is having Open Day at its campuses in Kuala Lumpur, Penang, Perak, Johor, Pahang and Sabah from now until March 31 (9.30am to 5pm). Among the programmes during the event at the Kuala Lumpur Main Campus are academic counselling, career guidance talks, cooking and baking demonstrations and campus tours. For details, call 03-4145-0100/23 ext 227 (Ms Teo) or ext 475 (Rajesry) or visit www.tarc.edu.my

The School of Psychology at the University of Nottingham Malaysia Campus invites you to learn more about what it means to study the subject. Academic staff will be on hand every Wednesday between 2pm and 5pm to answer queries from potential students. Visitors will also be shown around the research labs and have the chance to enjoy a campus tour.

For more information about this and other School of Psychology events, or to make an appointment, call Tila (03-8924-8203), email tilagavati.narayanan@nottingham.edu.my or enquiries@nottingham.edu.my, or visit www.nottingham.edu.my

The professional ASWARA (Akademi Seni Budaya Dan Warisan Kebangsaan) Dance Company, sponsored by the Sime Darby Foundation, will perform Take Off! at the Experimental Theatre in ASWARA on March 29-31 at 8.30pm.

Gelombang Baru, an annual choreography performance, aims to provide exposure to budding choreographers of Malaysia. This is the performance series that moulded Boh Cameronian Award-winning choreographers such as Aris Kadir, Shafirul Azmi Suhaimi and James Kan. the event will be held from April 26-28 at the same venue.

Details at www.aswara.edu.my

The National Kidney Foundation (NKF), in collaboration with the Malaysian Society of Nephrology and Ministry of Health, is organising the World Kidney Day Run and Carnival 2013 at Dataran Putrajaya on April 28. Registration for the Run and Fun Rides categories are open, and the forms are available for download at www.nkf.org.my Registration closes on April 5 or upon reaching 5,000 participants.

Do you have an event to announce? Send details to: Bulletin, c/o Education desk, New Straits Times, 31 Jalan Riong, 59100 Bangsar, Kuala Lumpur, email nstcurve@gmail.com or fax 03-2056-7150.