

Dine with Jojo and Pat

WISH you could dine with two of Malaysia's hottest women? Make this dream a reality while giving back to society with Sold.my's Charity Dinner Auction. Until March 15, Sold.my will be auctioning tickets to an exclusive dinner with Jojo Struys and Patricia Knudsen to raise funds for the National Kidney Foundation and 10 lucky bidders will dine with the two at Sentidos in Star-Hill Gallery on a later date.

Established in 2011, Sold.my is a leading pay-to-bid website which offers mostly gadgets and other lifestyle items on auction. The site has gained much popularity with over 55,000 users and 20,000 likes on Facebook.

"Users pay for every Token used in the auction and we donate the cost of each bid and the final bid value to the NKF," said Tian Qiuyan, co-founder of Sold.my.

The NKF is a non-profit organisation that helps Malaysians suffering from kidney failure who lack access to or cannot afford dialysis treatment.

Struys is a producer, director, TV host, radio announcer, rhythm tap dancer and relaxation guru. She hosts Chalk and Cheese, an international food show on the Asian Food Channel.

Patricia Knudsen was recently named FHM Malaysia's Most Wanted Woman of 2013 and had her own show on Capital FM playing indie tunes until recently.

For more information, visit www.sold.my today.