

Mooncake charity project returns in aid of underprivileged kidney patients

THE National Kidney Foundation of Malaysia (NKF) is partnering with Oversea again this year for the annual mooncake charity project in conjunction with the mid-Autumn festival.

All proceeds from this initiative will be channelled to NKF for the treatment of 1,700 underprivileged dialysis patients at 28 centres.

The gift boxes come in two designs – earthy and floral – to represent stability, elegance and family, all strong elements of the mid-Autumn festival.

The mooncakes are halal certified and come in two sets: Set A includes Lotus Paste with one yolk, Golden Starlight with one yolk, Lotus mooncake and Red Bean mooncake for RM68 per box; and Set B includes premium Lotus Paste with two yolks, White Lotus Paste with one yolk, Green Tea with Red Bean, Assorted Fruits and Nuts, Golden Starlight mooncake and Shanghai mooncake with one yolk for RM88 per box.

Proceeds will also fund NKF's constant efforts to educate the public on early prevention and management of kidney diseases.

Members of the public can also sponsor the mooncakes for NKF

The mooncake charity project will see NKF partnering with Oversea for the second time.

patients and their families.

NKF chief executive officer Chua Hong Wee said, "Every year, NKF has to raise RM24.9mil to subsidise the cost of dialysis treatment for our patients.

"The annual mooncake charity project is part of our fundraising initiatives to support our ongoing mission for the last 50 years by providing a second chance at life for end-stage renal failure patients."

Those who purchase the mooncakes for more than RM200 in a single receipt will receive a complimentary NKF wristlet.
